Choose Wheaton for a worry-free move.

When you think about moving, you probably think about a disruptive and distracting life event. It can end up that way if you choose the wrong moving company.

That's why thousands of families choose Wheaton World Wide Moving—the worry-free moving authority. Wheaton has the knowledge and expertise to make sure your belongings arrive at your new home safely—and to put your heart and mind at ease along the way.

Your team made the moving piece easy!
Thanks!”*

Let's be real. Moving can be stressful.

But does it have to be? What if your moving company listened to your needs? What if it understood the importance of protecting your belongings? What if it made your move hassle-free? Does a company like that exist?

You bet it does—and its name is Wheaton.

For more than 70 years, we've served families with friendly, professional moving services. We do it by being on time, transporting your belongings safely, and maintaining open lines of communication throughout your move. We take the burden of moving off your hands—and the stress that often accompanies it off your mind.

What separates us from all other movers?

Here are a few reasons:

- We're everywhere. Our agent network covers more than 95 percent of the United States, enabling us to serve households of all sizes in almost all places.
- We're big and friendly. We're large enough to offer state-of-the-art services for competitive prices, yet we maintain the mentality of a small business.
- We take care of you. You'll have a dedicated move manager with you every step of the way to make sure your move goes smoothly.
- We're true to our word. Our on-time delivery rate is higher than 92 percent, one of the best in the industry.
- We've got your back. If the unexpected happens and your belongings are delayed or damaged, we'll go the extra mile to make it right.

That extra mile is the Wheaton difference. We don't want to meet your expectations—we want to exceed them. It's a privilege to move your life, and we're honored you've put your trust in us. So let Wheaton sweat the details and enjoy a worry-free move.

Our services.

Wheaton is best known for safely transporting your household goods from your home in one state to your new home in a different state. But it's our extended suite of services that really sets us apart:

Professional packing services

Moving specialty items

Appliance disconnection/connection

Automobile transportation

Short- or long-term storage

Protecting your life's possessions.

When you entrust your belongings to Wheaton, you want to know they will be protected. Our protection plans ensure that they are. We offer two primary options for protection:

LIMITED LIABILITY PROTECTION

This provides a specific amount of coverage based on the weight of each item. Electing this option means your belongings will be covered at a replacement rate of $0.60 per pound if items are unable to be repaired.

FULL REPLACEMENT VALUE PROTECTION

Need more protection than limited liability allows? Our full replacement value protection covers the full cost of repair or replacement for a lost or damaged item.

Pricing, and providing the best value.

One of the first steps in the moving process is requesting an estimate.

WHEATON BASES ITS ESTIMATES ON THREE FACTORS:

- The weight of household possessions.
- The distance and specific details of your move.
- The services and protection options you choose.

YOU MAY PLAN TO REQUEST QUOTES FROM OTHER MOVERS AS WELL.

If they return with a quote lower than Wheaton's, you should have a healthy skepticism and consider these questions:

- Are the weight estimates the same?
- Are all the details included—along with the distance?
- Are the same services and protection plans being considered?

Wheaton has provided fair and honest estimates for more than 70 years, and we've established ourselves as one of the most trusted moving companies in the United States. Count on us for competitive rates—and no surprise expenses.

“The best experience with the whole move from start to finish. Recommended my neighbor use Wheaton and they are moving her in two weeks. Thanks for your courteous service and great communication.”

The Wheaton agent network.

If you're moving across state lines, you'll need a company like Wheaton that is licensed to perform interstate moves. Why?

- Interstate moves are carefully regulated by the government.
- Because of regulation, only accredited van lines can legally conduct interstate moves.

Wheaton was the first carrier in the nation to hold interstate moving authority for all 50 states, as issued by the US Interstate Commerce Commission. Our network of approximately 350 agents is ready to help you with your move today.

- All of our agents are carefully vetted.
- Wheaton agents can perform both local and national moves.
- Many of our agents have been moving families like yours for generations.

Wheaton agents have the experience and expertise to ensure your interstate move goes off without a hitch. Go online to WheatonWorldWide.com to find one in your area today.

Delivering our best for your family.

For more than 70 years, Wheaton has moved families with friendly, professional service, and we do it better than anyone else. We have the capacity and the resources to handle any moving challenge, so you can relax knowing that when it's all said and done, your life will continue uninterrupted. Because we really do move more than just "things." We move your life.

Dear Wheaton:

Moving a family across the country is an overwhelming, scary experience. We planned as much as we could and we surely felt like we made the right decision within five minutes of meeting your team. Everyone was so positive, friendly and organized. It really helped set our minds at ease.

Every minute with our driver was professional and enjoyable. We were so impressed by the courteous, respectful and systematic way that he managed the workers and the packing – all while empowering us to feel that we were ‘in-the-know’ during the entire move.

I always assumed that a mover simply picks up your stuff and drops it off, but Wheaton made me realize that the move is much more than that. I honestly could not have asked for a more positive experience with our move. If we ever move again, Wheaton will be our mover.

Sincerely,
CARMELLA AND JOHN M., MESA, ARIZ.
